

About Your Teacher

Hi! I am Dr. Sabrina Kent Morris. Thank you so much for visiting my page!

Education

I earned my M.A. in Political Science and my doctorate at Virginia Tech. I attended Radford University as an undergraduate, completing two bachelor's degrees in Social Science and Political Science, respectively. From 2011 to 2018, I taught a variety of upper- and lower-level college courses in Political Science and History at Virginia Tech, Radford University, and during the pandemic, Ferrum College. I am a published scholar and have presented my research at academic conferences. I hold a 10-year teaching license in the Commonwealth of Virginia, endorsed in History and the Social Sciences. I joined Danville Public Schools (DPS) in June 2023, having taught Civics and Economics at Bonner Middle School. Currently, I teach courses in History and Government at George Washington High School.

About Me

Millennial. Scorpio. LGBTQ+. I'm an avid music fan, everything from pop, hip-hop, indie, and classic rock. My favorite band is Phish, whom I've seen over 60 times in concert (it's a different show every time). I am also a vinyl record enthusiast. My favorite movies include: The Graduate, Clueless, Interstellar, or anything with Bill Murray in it. I like cats and work out whenever I get the chance.
