Fargo South Student Announcements
Thursday, May 1st, 2025

Announcements:

- Craving something sweet? The PaY Committee is holding a bake sale on Thursday, May 1 in the Commons during all three lunch runs. Scotcheroos, sugar cookie bars, brownies, and more are $2 each, cash or card. All proceeds go to the Red River Children's Advocacy Center, so buy a delicious treat and help make a difference in the lives of children!

- Key Club is hosting a drive for hygiene products today and tomorrow. Please bring any new toothbrushes, toothpaste, soap, deodorant, pads, and tampons to Key Club's table during your lunch run. For every 3 items you donate you will be entered into a raffle for a gift basket.

- Hi from the library! South High students currently have around 500 overdue books – 500!!! Please return or renew your overdue books so we don't have to bug you when we start coming to classes THIS Friday. If you have lost a book, please talk to library staff so we can arrange to replace the book. Thank you from library staff.

- Are you considering a career in scientific research? Wondering what it is like to work in a lab and conduct research? Interested in Chemistry, Biochemistry, or Coatings & Polymeric Materials? PICNICS –Summer Program 2025 might be for You. Friday is the deadline to apply.

- There is Saturday detention this week for those students who have detention hours to serve. Saturday detention is from 9am to Noon in room E10. Please enter the school from the South doors and be sure to have homework or a book to read. Remember, Saturday detentions are 2 for 1!

- I want to thank all the students and staff who made yesterday's career fair a success. Our visiting businesses were commenting how great our students are! I agree (I is Ms. Koppy)! Please reach out to Ms. Koppy if you have any questions or need more information from any of our participating businesses.
