3.0 Report/Advice from ELAC to SSC

G.Lewis shared that in all of our 4 ELAC meetings, parents have continued to request to have more Parent Evening Nights aside from our regular Elac meetings. They would like to continue Art Night, Cultural Evening Night, as well as continue with our Cooking Nights. G. Lewis will be partnering with the Wellness Center and hosting Calming Art Night with Parents and students on May 2, 2025.

4.0 Year End Review

R. Briggs then invited the council to review the SPSA for the 2025-26 SY. R. Briggs explained that we do not know how much money will be allocated yet for next year. He also explained to all present that because we have continued to increase graduation we are no longer a CSI school but we are a TSI.

Goal #1- We will continue with our Saturday Academies, AfterSchool Program, 1:1 Mentoring, and continue with staff development.

Goal #2- R. Briggs mentioned we will continue with field trips to universities trip and guest speakers

Goal #3- R. Briggs mentioned that we will continue with our PBIS, lunch activities in the PE area, and continue with our tournaments with other schools. R. Briggs said because of our continued activities our suspensions are lower this SY.

Goal #4- R. Briggs mentioned we will increase the funding for our Parent Evening Nights. This will continue to improve our parent participation. R. Briggs explained that one new idea could be to have a teacher call parents to invite them to our school events throughout the year.
