Grades K-12: Participation of Home-School/Charter/Private School Students in Mineral County School District Including Special Education Services

Believing the Mineral County School District has an interest in all students regardless of educational model, the Board adopts this policy to allow homeschool/charter/private school students participation in instructional, co-curricular, extra-curricular programs, and athletic programs as required by law and if space and materials are available, appropriate fees are paid representing actual costs, and the parents or legal guardians demonstrate to the satisfaction of the Board that the pupil is qualified as set forth in NRS 388A.474, 385B.060, and 385B.065. Students may, upon parent request, be allowed to participate in district programs. Such students must then adhere to regular attendance procedures, Board policies, discipline, and student handbooks as established by the school and must avoid disruption of said programs. Parents are responsible for transportation for students attending selected school offerings.

The Superintendent or his/her designee shall evaluate transcripts and determine the value of prior credits and number of years of school attendance or equivalent for home-school students on a case-by-case basis. The Superintendent or his/her designee has authority for decisions regarding participation of homeschool/charter/private school students. Parents and students who may disagree with a decision made by the principal or Superintendent may follow the steps outlined in Policy KL.

Home-school~~ed~~/Charter/Private School students may participate in interscholastic activities as provided under NAC and NRS.
