Dear Graduate,

Congratulations on your graduation from Rogers High School! I join your family and friends in celebrating this incredible accomplishment.

This exciting new chapter in your life will bring countless opportunities and unexpected adventures. Through hard work and perseverance and with the support of family and friends, you'll continue to overcome the challenges that come your way. So set your goals high and always stay true to your principles and ideals. Surround yourself with those who respect your values and will support you in your path to success. Continue to pursue your dreams and use your gifts to serve others.

But for now, have an enjoyable summer—you've certainly earned it! My wish for you is a bright, successful, and fulfilling future. If I can ever be of assistance, I'm just an email away and please feel free to contact me anytime at rep.danny.nadeau@house.mn.gov.

Again, congratulations on a job well done!

Best wishes,
