

Hunters Glen April News

Dear Hunters Glen Families,

April is here! While the extended forecast currently looks wonderful, we know from living in Colorado that the weather can change at any time. A reminder that we do go outside as much as possible, as long as the temperature, inclusive of wind chill, is above 20 degrees. Please ensure your child is dressed appropriately for the weather.

State Testing for Grades 3, 4, & 5

A reminder that grades 3, 4, and 5 will start required state testing on Tuesday, April 8th, and will continue the next few weeks in the mornings. Fourth and fifth graders will test every day of the week. 3rd grade students will test this week and next week on Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday.

Animals on District and School Grounds

A reminder that while many of us have our own dogs and other animals at home, it is Adams 12 District Policy that no dogs or other animals are allowed on school property, especially during arrival and dismissal time. Thank you for your understanding.
