National Associate Principal's Day

Today we celebrate the best Associate Principal in all the land, Mrs. Legore Seawood! Today we gave our AP/AD a big shoutout for keeping things running smoothly behind the scenes, handling all the curveballs thrown her way with a smile, and somehow managing to be everywhere at once—our amazing Assoc. Principal Mrs. Legore Seawood.

Whether it's solving someone else's emergency, organizing our next sporting event, helping students & staff, or just making sure the school doesn't fall into chaos—we are so extremely thankful and blessed to have Mrs. Legore Seawood here at Mill Creek.

If haven't heard the BIG news, Mrs. Legore Seawood will transition to PRINCIPAL at Mill Creek next year. Please join me twofold with thanks and congrats to Mrs. Legore Seawood!

A Little Help From My Friends in Early Childhood

On Wednesday our 8th graders in Ms. Godwin's 7th hour Pathways class visited the Early Childhood program in the CTEC building next door. EC celebrated "Week of the Young Child" and had our MC students come in to assist with a fun activity!

Screenager

When: April 24 5:30-7:30 pm Where: MVHS PAC

Who: Parents and children concerned about mental health in the digital age

Millions of young people experience high levels of stress, anxiety, and depression. In this context, we follow physician and filmmaker Delaney Ruston as she explores innovative solutions for enhancing adolescent well-being in the digital age.

During our time together, we will view the film, which serves as a resource to uncover essential skills for building stress resiliency within schools and our community. This film is primarily intended for children aged 10 and older but may also be suitable for younger audiences with parental guidance.
