SENIOR STUDENTS

RYAN CALLOWAY

Future Plans: Attend Mount St. Joseph University to study sports management.

“Music is a way to leave all the stress behind.”

ZIMMER COMBS

Future Plans: Attend Miami University to study kinesiology.

“Music is a safe space where I can be creative and have fun with my friends.”

SENIOR STUDENTS

ELLA CUCHRA

Future Plans: Attend University of Cincinnati and major in communication design.

“Music to me means togetherness as a community and freedom of expression.”

SEBASTIAN FELDKAMP

Future Plans: Attend University of Cincinnati to study Law and Society.

“Music is a way to unite ourselves, bring us together, and to express our emotions. Music is scintillating.

I love music.”

SENIOR STUDENTS

NINA GRAVLEE

Future Plans: Attend college for either screenwriting/film or journalism.

"This is like asking me to sum up what every biome on planet Earth looks like. That's cheesy, but there are truly so many facets of music and its impact on my life. In short, music is my favorite form of expression, and I love both creating and listening to it. I cannot wait to continue pursuing music in college."

MOLLY GRONTKOWSKI

Future Plans: Attend University of Cincinnati to major in nursing, in hopes of becoming a pediatric nurse.

"Music to me means coming together to sing and work together as a community and family."

SENIOR STUDENTS

WILL JENKINS

Future Plans: Attend Ohio University for film school with the intent of directing, writing, and acting.

“Music, to me, is a way to express myself in a way that everyone can understand and enjoy.

CHRISTIAN JENNINGS

Future Plans: Attend UC to major in biomedical engineering.

“To me, music has always been a way to express myself and connect with others. Beyond being a way to bring others together, performance has always been cathartic as I am able to let out my feelings through song. I've always felt like when performing a song, that is one of the purest and most vulnerable forms of expression. I also have met many of my best friends through music whether it be marching band, choir, or theater. From middle school to now, I've always been able to make new friendships through the music that I and many others love.”

SENIOR STUDENTS

WES NELSON

Future Plans: Attend Fordham University to study political science.

"Music's effect on my life is ineffable. It made me the person I am today. I can't imagine a life without it."

ALENE OTTO

Future Plans: Attend Miami University, majoring in Political Science with a minor in Data Analytics.

I want to continue choir in college as well!

"It is hard to explain just what music means to me. It is a way to create community, a way to express emotion, and a small pocket of joy that I can carry with me everywhere. It has a certain quality to it that brings people together, and that is really special to me."

SENIOR STUDENTS

SASHA PINYAYEV

Future Plans: Attend Ohio University to study environmental engineering.

“Music is the most challenging thing I’ve ever tried to learn as well as the most rewarding. It’s made me approach my life more thoughtfully, and it’s something that I can continue to look forward to practicing every day.”

SELAH REIBER

Future Plans: Attend Morehead State University and study Elementary and Special Education.

“The first music I ever learned was music from church and that will always be the most important use of music to me. But the other stuff is super fun, too.”

SENIOR STUDENTS

EVE SCHILLING

Future Plans: Attend Miami University to study marketing.

“Music is a way for me to express myself and help me cope with stress. I enjoy singing with my family, and sharing music with them.”

GIANNA SCHUELER

Future Plans: Attend Franciscan University to study education, specifically history. I also plan to attend the honors college that provides seminars on the greatest works of literature!

“Music helps me express my emotions and work through hard times. It also is a space of joy and grief all mixed together. Taylor Swift’s music means everything to me and has helped me to grow to love music for the way I see do now. Singing together in choir has strengthened my voice and my confidence to sing around others.”

SENIOR STUDENTS

MORGAN STARR

Future Plans: Attend the University of Alabama to study microbiology and Spanish, and be part of the Blount Scholars Program and the Honors College.

"Music is how I have grown into a leader, someone who is proud of her performance and wants to share that love with others in her community. Music, whether in SVE or theater or just with friends, provides a vital outlet to make something beautiful and to make people feel."
