

7th Grade Summer Reading Assignment

Riverdale – English Language Arts

Required Novel: Treasure Island by Robert Louis Stevenson

---

Assignment Due Date

Students must finish reading Treasure Island by the first week of school. Standard ELA students will take a comprehension test on the novel during the second week of school. A summer writing assignment will be provided for enriched ELA students.

About the Book

Treasure Island is a thrilling adventure story about a young boy named Jim Hawkins who discovers a treasure map and sets off on a sea voyage to find pirate gold. Along the way, he meets unforgettable characters—like the cunning Long John Silver—and learns valuable lessons about courage, loyalty, and trust.

Reading Help: Understanding Old Language

Treasure Island was written in the 1800s, so some words and phrases may be unfamiliar. Use this guide to help:

Original Phrase	What It Means
"Yo-ho-ho, and a bottle of rum!"	A pirate chant or drinking song
"Avast, there!"	Stop! / Hold on!
"He were an ugly customer"	He was a dangerous or unpleasant person
"Pieces of eight!"	Old Spanish silver coins used as treasure
"Shiver my timbers!"	A pirate's way of saying "Wow!" or "Oh no!"
"Scuppers"	Holes in a ship to drain water
"The black spot"	A warning of punishment from pirates

"Cutlass"

A short sword used by sailors

"Lubber"

An awkward or inexperienced sailor
