 - B. Pledge of Allegiance - "I Led the Pledge" – Amorabella (kindergarten) and Calvin Jason (second grade), Ehrman Crest Elementary School.
 - C. Roll Call
2. INFORMATION REPORTS
 - A. Student/Staff Recognition
 1. Dr. Marie Palano, Seneca Valley Assistant Superintendent of Curriculum and Assessment, was recently named the recipient of the 2025 Emerging Woman in Education Award, presented in memory of University of Pittsburgh Professor Emeritus Dr. Jean Winsand by the Tri-State Study Council. The award recognizes an educational trailblazer who has made a significant impact and positive difference through her leadership activities and initiatives.
 2. PMEA & Music Excellence
 - a. Grand Champions

The Seneca Valley Marching Band was named the Grand Champions in the Norfolk North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO) Festival's "Parade of Nations" in Norfolk, VA, on April 26. In addition to the Grand Champion award, which is the highest overall score of any ensemble at the festival, the marching band also earned the best percussion award, best auxiliaries award, and a gold rating. This marks Seneca Valley Marching Band's fifth appearance in the parade, and they proudly earned the title of Grand Champions every time. There were over 100 parade units in attendance; Seneca Valley was one of only eight high school bands selected nationwide to participate.
 - b. District 5 Junior High Band Fest

Eighteen SV Band students participated in the PMEA District 5 Junior High Band Fest on March 25 at North Catholic High School. The seventh/eighth grade ensemble featured 13 SV students.

- c. Region 1 Band Festival
 Nine SV Band students participated in the March 6 - 8 PMEA Region 1 Band Festival with two students advancing to the All-State Festival.
 - d. MPA Adjudication – RGMS and Elementary Bands/Orchestras
 On March 18, sixth and seventh grade instrumental students participated in an adjudicated Music Performance Assessment (MPA) event. The RGMS seventh grade band and orchestra and Ehrman Crest sixth grade ensembles earned Superior and Excellent ratings.
 - e. Western Region Orchestra Festival
 Six SV Orchestra students participated in the PMEA Western Region Orchestra Festival held Feb. 20–22. Four students advanced to the All-State Orchestra, setting a new school record.
 - f. Region Chorus Festival
 Ten SV high school chorus students participated in the March 19-21 PMEA Region Chorus at Waynesburg University. Six advanced to the All-State Choir Festival.
 - g. Music Performance Assessment (MPA) – Choral Department
 Approximately 800 chorus students in grades 6-12 participated in an MPA event on March 13. All choirs received "Superior" ratings.
 - h. PMEA All-State Festival Participants
 Thirteen SV students advanced to the state level and attended the PMEA All-State conference in April. Participants represented Orchestra, Wind Ensemble, Jazz Ensemble and Choir. Conductors included national and university-level professionals.
3. Media & Technology Distinction
- a. Digital Media Arts Consortium (DMAC) Festival
 SV Video Production and SVTV students earned seven awards at the April 9 DMAC Festival.
 - b. SVTV Award-Winning Program
 On March 9, SVTV earned second place in the High School Live Sports Broadcast category at the Myron Cope High School Athletic Communication Awards. Crew members also received an honorable mention for Sports Broadcasters of the Year.
 - c. Aspirational Students Receive Recognition
 Two seniors were selected as Western PA Affiliate Winners of the 2025 National Center for Women and Information Technology (NCWIT) for the Aspirations in Computing High School Award. The award celebrates students with achievements and leadership in technology and computing, with support from institutions like Carnegie Mellon, Pitt, and Penn State.
4. Congratulations to two Seneca Valley students for placing at the SkillsUSA Pennsylvania State Competition held in Hershey earlier this month. SkillsUSA, offered through the Butler County Area Vocational-Technical School

(BCAVTS), welcomed hundreds of top-performing students from across the state to participate in real-world job challenges across a range of industries. Mr. Gavin Uber, junior, received bronze for his participation in the TeamWorks contest of the Building Construction program. Miss Elizabeth Semenenko, a sophomore graphic design student, received bronze for her photography submission.

5. Seneca Valley is proud to announce that two student teams from Haine Elementary School have earned invitations to the KidWind World Championship, taking place May 18–21 in Phoenix. The competition is the culminating event of the KidWind Challenge, a hands-on design competition that encourages students to explore the power and promise of clean energy through building and testing small-scale wind turbines and solar structures. This year, six teams of fourth-grade students from Haine Elementary participated in KidWind events. Following impressive showings at these events, two Seneca Valley teams earned tickets to the prestigious world finals.
