You've got this!	May 5th is MMIW Day, a day to raise awareness for the widespread anger and sadness in First Nation communities because of the missing and murdered women and children in their communities. A red hand over the mouth has become the symbol of a growing movement toward awareness, accountability, and advocacy. The red hand represents the silence of the media, law enforcement and government agencies on this issue, as well as the oppression and subjugation of Native women throughout history.  	Monday: JV Baseball vs Potter Valley @ 4pm, release @ 2:45 Tuesday: Varsity Baseball and Softball @ 4pm vs Lower Lake, release @ 2:45.
