

McClure Earns Spot on Academic All-State Team

Bolles Senior Elizabeth McClure will be joining the 2025 Florida Dairy Farmers Academic All-State Team.

The FHSAA announced on April 9.

McClure and the 23 other seniors named to the team will be celebrated at a banquet dinner on Monday, June 2. Each will receive a commemorative medallion along with a $1,700 scholarship. Additionally, one male and one female student will be named the Ronald N. Davis Scholar-Athletes of the Year. This accolade is the most prestigious honor FHSAA bestows on exceptional, active student-athletes.

A minimum graduating 3.5 unweighted GPA and a minimum of two varsity letters in at least two different sports during junior and senior years are required to be eligible for this all-state honor.

Elizabeth McClure

An Advanced Placement Scholar with Honors, an Advanced Placement Scholar with WE Service Recognition and a 4.0 GPA, McClure ranks in the top 10% of her class. She competes on the Bolles' cross country and track and field teams, placing in the top 25 at the state track and field championships.

Additionally, McClure has previously been named Honor Council co-president, was the founder and captain of the Bolles Speech Team, and served as treasurer of the Bolles Supporting First Responders Club.

She plans to study pre-medicine at the University of Florida.
