Virgin Islands Department of Education Confirms Normal Operations for All Public Schools on Tuesday, November 12, 2024

Following recent weather conditions affecting the Territory, the Virgin Islands Department of Education (VIDE) announces that all public schools will be open and resume their regular schedules on Tuesday, November 12, 2024.

To ensure the safety and readiness of our school campuses, maintenance teams conducted assessments, inspecting facilities to verify that recent weather events did not present hazards that could disrupt school operations. Based on these findings, it has been confirmed that all public schools are prepared to open on schedule.

VIDE emphasizes, however, that weather conditions may shift rapidly. The Department will continue to monitor developments and will promptly inform the public if any adjustments to school operations become necessary. We encourage parents, guardians, staff, and students to stay tuned to official VIDE communication channels for timely and accurate updates.

Thank you for your continued support and understanding as we work to prioritize the safety and well-being of our students, faculty, and staff.
