

Native American Heritage Month

Pōsōh 🍁 Boozhoo 🍂 Bosho 🍁 Shekoli 🍂 Hq̓q̓

Hello! My name is Ms. Sara and I am the school's First Nation Specialist. November is Native American Heritage Month. I've included some local events and ways to help celebrate!

Make sure to follow our Facebook page!

GBAPS Title VI First Nations Program

Events in November

11/4 Braids are Brave! See flyer below

11/13 Oneida Reads Family Event
5-6 pm at the Oneida Community Library
Local Author & Illustrator will read their book.

11/16 Indigenous Art Event
3-8 pm at the Bellin Building
Art, Music, and Vendors

Ways to celebrate and honor Native American Heritage Month:

- Attend a cultural event
- Listen to Native music - flute or drums
- Visit a tribe's museum
- Read a book by a Native author. See the flyer below!

12 tribes in Wisconsin

Students at Kennedy represent six tribes.

BRAIDS ARE BRAVE!

NOVEMBER 4TH

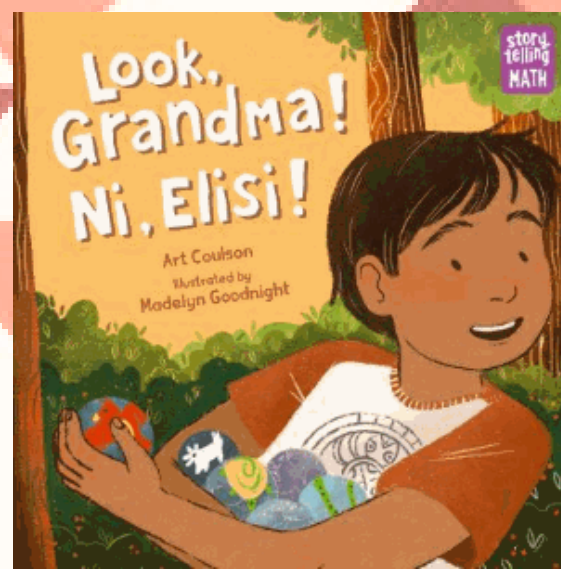

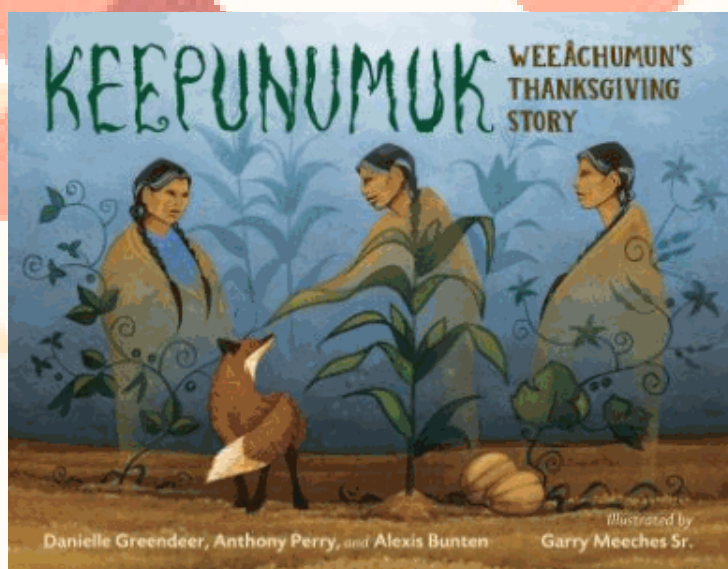

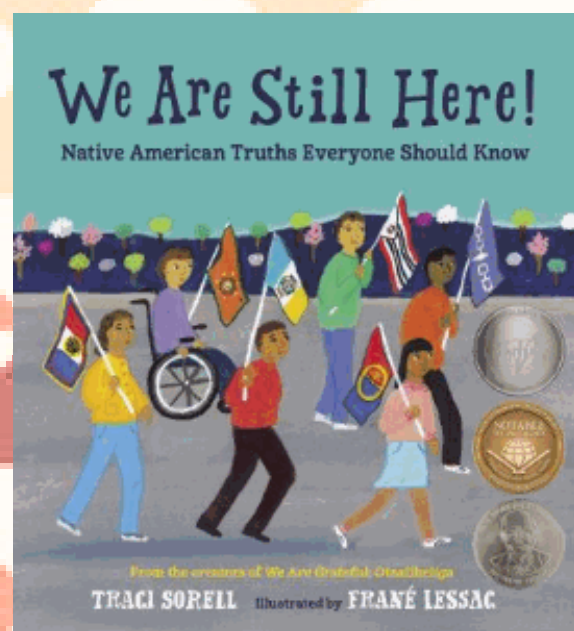

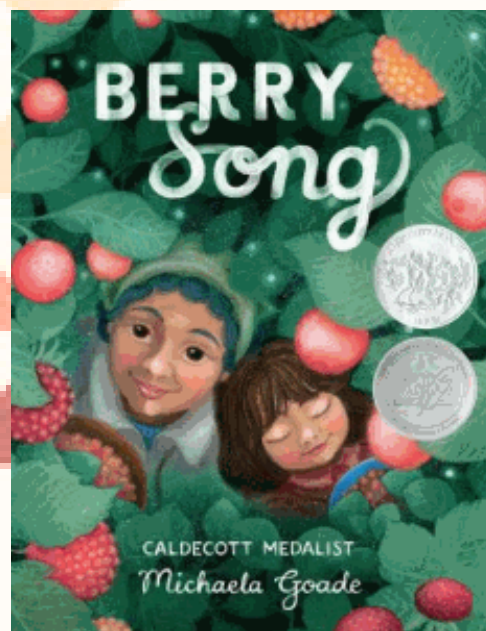

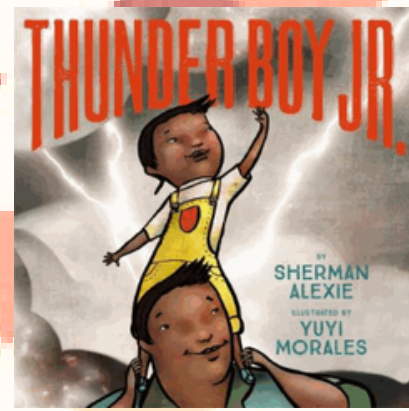

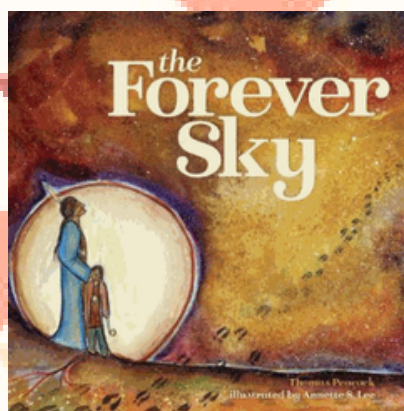

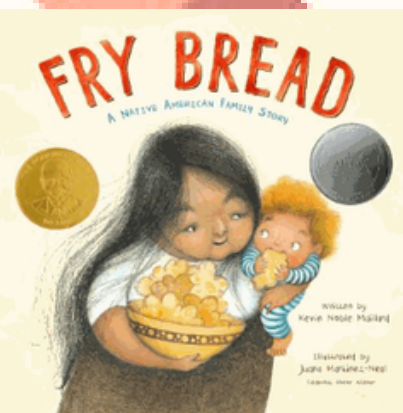

Let's kick off

NATIVE AMERICAN HERITAGE MONTH

by wearing your braids!

Hair connects us to our culture.
The 3 parts of the braid represent our mind, body, and spirit.

These books are available in the library or Ms. Sara's room!