

A CASTLE GUARD IS

A Responsible Learner

- Identifies personal strengths
- Organizes self, belongings, and materials
- Demonstrates ownership in the learning process
- Works independently
- Identifies and applies behaviors that support one's own learning

A Socially Responsible Person

- Discusses, analyzes, and chooses behaviors that contribute to a positive school community
- Sets, communicates, and achieves academic and behavioral goals
- Demonstrates respect toward self as a unique person and explores one's own cultural background
- Appreciates individual differences, alternative points of view, and the cultural background of others

An Effective Communicator

- Identifies and expresses feelings
- Seeks information and support from school staff, family members, and peers to solve a problem
- Advocates for oneself by setting and expressing personal boundaries and knowing when and how to ask for help

A Healthy Person

- Develops physical wellness
- Develops social/emotional well-being

A Cooperative Individual

- Works cooperatively
- Understands and effectively copes with peer pressure
- Identifies and applies positive social skills to interactions with others
- Respects the physical and emotional privacy of self and others

A Knowledgeable Person

- Meets or exceeds academic standards as demonstrated through state and district assessments in:

English Language Arts	Music
Mathematics	Art
Science	Green and Healthy
Social Studies	Digital Citizenship
Physical Education	Life-Long Learning

A Creative Thinker

- Identifies and evaluates alternative outcomes to a decision
- Applies problem-solving and decision-making skills to make positive choices