District Celebrates BV Staff

As the calendar turns to May, end-of-year activities and celebrations begin to ramp up. BV staff members are also being recognized for the important roles they play in our students' success.

The Buckeye Valley Board of Education has designated next week, May 5-9, as Teacher Appreciation Week. District buildings will honor teachers throughout the week with different activities. We are excited to celebrate our BVLS Teaching staff and greatly appreciate all they do for the students and the BV community!

For a complete list of activities throughout the district, visit the building calendars on the district website.

2025 Global Scholars Diploma Graduates Announced

Recently, BVHS Global Scholars students participated in the "Take Action Project Fair" at Otterbein University. This event is the culmination of the 3-year Global Scholars program operated by the Columbus Council on World Affairs, in partnership with
