Note from the teacher

Good morning families! Happy Mother's day to all the moms out there. Well, here it is...only 2 more weeks left of first grade. I can't even believe it. This week will not be as busy as the last couple of weeks, but here is what is happening.

Monday is Quiet games, I have some fun games to play in the afternoon. Tuesday is Ready for 2nd grade. All the first grades will be visiting the 2nd grade teachers for 45 minutes in the morning.

Wednesday is Sunglasses and show and tell. Students can bring one small item for show and tell and a pair of sunglasses. Thursday is Tongue twister day. Students can bring a tongue twister to share with the class. Friday is Undercover reader. We have a couple of guest readers coming to read some fun books to the class. We also have the Lawrence Public Library coming in to talk about the summer reading program.

Please reach out to me if you have any questions or concerns.

This week's Focus Lessons
