Bless the Lord (10,000 Reasons)

The sun comes up, it's a new day dawning;
It's time to sing Your song again.
Whatever may pass and whatever lies before me,
Let me be singing when the evening comes.

Bless the Lord, O my soul,
O my soul, worship His holy Name.
Sing like never before, O my soul.
I'll worship Your holy Name.

You're rich in love, and You're slow to anger,
Your Name is great, and Your heart is kind;
For all Your goodness, I will keep on singing,
Ten thousand reasons for my heart to find.

Bless the Lord, O my soul,
O my soul, worship His holy Name.
Sing like never before, O my soul.
I'll worship Your holy Name.

INTRODUCTORY RITE

PENITENTIAL ACT

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned
in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done
and in what I have failed to do,
through my fault,
through my fault,
through my most grievous fault;
therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin,
all the angels and saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for

May Almighty God have mercy on us, forgive us our sins, and bring us to everlasting life.

Response: Amen

Kyrie eleison, Christie eleison, Kyrie eleison

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest,
And on earth peace to people of good will.
We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you,
We give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heav'nly King, O God, Almighty Father.
Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
You take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us;
You take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer;
You are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.
For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord,
You alone are the Most High Jesus Christ,
With the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

FIRST READING

Read by: Alana Bradley '25

Isaiah 61: 1-4

A Reading from the Book of the Prophet Isaiah
The Spirit of the Lord God is upon me, because the Lord has anointed me;
He has sent me to bring good news to the afflicted, to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, release to the prisoners,
To announce a year of favor from the Lord and a day of vindication by our God;
To comfort all who mourn; to place on those who mourn in Zion a diadem instead of ashes, to give them oil of gladness instead of mourning, a glorious mantle instead of a faint spirit.

The Word of the Lord.

Response: Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 104: 25-32

Response: Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth.

O Lord, how manifold are your works! In wisdom you have made them all: the earth is full of your creatures. Yonder is the great and wide sea with its living things too many to number, creatures both small and great.

There move the ships, and there is that Leviathan, which you have made for the sport of it. All of them look to you, to give them their food in due season. You give it to them; they gather it;

You open your hand, and they are filled with good things. You hide your face, and they are terrified, you take away their breath and they die and return to their dust.

You send forth your Spirit, and they are created, and so you renew the face of the earth. May the glory of the Lord endure for ever, and may the Lord rejoice in all his works.

SECOND READING

Read by: Marianna Tavano '25

1 Peter 3:15-18

Beloved: Sanctify Christ as Lord in your hearts. Always be ready to give an explanation to anyone who asks you for a reason for your hope, but do it with gentleness and reverence, keeping your conscience clear, so that, when you are maligned, those who defame your good conduct in Christ may themselves be put to shame. For it is better to suffer for doing good, if that be the will of God than for doing evil.

For Christ also suffered for sins once, the righteous for the sake of the unrighteous, that he might lead you to God. Put to death in the flesh, he was brought to life in the Spirit.

The Word of the Lord.

Response: Thanks be to God.

Please stand

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Celtic Alleluia

Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

Come, Holy Spirit. Fill the hearts of your faithful, and enlighten them with the fire of your love.

Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

GOSPEL

John 14: 15-21

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John.

Response: Glory to you, O Lord.

Jesus said to his disciples: "If you love me, you will keep my commandments. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Advocate to be with you always, the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot accept, because it neither sees nor knows him. But you know him, because he remains with you, and will be in you. I will not leave you orphans; I will come to you. In a little while the world will no longer see me, but you will see me, because I live and you will live. On that day you will realize that I am in my Father and you are in me and I in you. Whoever has my commandments and observes them is the one who loves me. And whoever loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and reveal myself to him."

The Gospel of the Lord.

Response: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

PREPARATION HYMN

You Are My All in All

You are my strength when I am weak,
You are the treasure that I seek,
You are my all in all.
Seeking You as a precious jewel,
Lord, to give up I'd be a fool,
You are my all in all.

Jesus, Lamb of God,
Worthy is Your name.
Jesus, Lamb of God.
Worthy is Your name.

Taking my sin, my cross, my shame,
Rising again I bless Your name,
You are my all in all.
When I fall down You pick me up,
When I am dry You fill my cup,
You are my all in all.

Jesus, Lamb of God,
Worthy is Your name.
Jesus, Lamb of God.
Worthy is Your name.

EUCHARISTIC PRAYER

PREFACE ACCLAMATION

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord God of hosts.
Heav'n and earth are full of your glory.
Hosannah! Hosannah in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosannah! Hosannah in the highest.

MEMORIAL ACCLAMATION

We proclaim your Death, O' Lord
And profess your Resurrection
Until You come, Until You come again.

GREAT AMEN

Amen, Amen, Amen

OUR FATHER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. Amen

SIGN OF PEACE

The peace of the Lord be with you always.
Response: And with your spirit.
Let us offer each other the sign of peace.

AGNUS DEI

Agnus Dei, qui tollis peccata mundi, miserere nobis.
Agnus Dei, qui tollis peccata mundi, miserere nobis.
Agnus Dei, qui tollis peccata mundi, dona nobis pacem.

COMMUNION ANTHEMS

Miracle of Grace

Miracle of grace, mystery of faith,
Calling us to venture to the deep.
Though our senses fail, your graces still prevail,
And we become the love that we receive.
Bread of life, bread of life.
Those who eat this bread shall live and never die.
Bread of life, bread of life.
Your true presence in this holy sacrifice.
Bread of life.
Unworthy though we are, you feed the hungry heart
With bread come down from heaven above.
And like a grain of wheat, we fall down at your feet,
Dying here with you. Oh, let us rise!
Bread of life, bread of life.
Those who eat this bread shall live and never die.
Bread of life, bread of life.
Your true presence in this holy sacrifice.
Bread of life, bread of life, bread of life.
Your faithfulness revealed in this covenant you've sealed
With your very body and your blood.
Come, claim your bride again with love that cannot end,
for what God joins no one can divide.
Bread of life, bread of life.
Those who eat this bread shall live and never die.
Bread of life, bread of life.
Your true presence in this holy sacrifice.
Bread of life, bread of life, bread of life.

Amazing Grace (My Chains Are Gone)

Amazing grace, how sweet the sound,
That saved a wretch like me.
I once was lost, but now I'm found,
Was blind, but now I see.

Twas grace that taught my heart to fear,
And grace, my fears relieved,
How precious did that grace appear
The hour I first believed.

My chains are gone; I've been set free.
My God, my Savior, has ransomed me.
And like a flood, His mercy rains
Unending love, amazing grace.

The Lord has promised good to me,
His word, my hope, secures.
He will my shield and portion be
As long as life endures.

My chains are gone; I've been set free.
My God, my Savior, has ransomed me.
And like a flood, His mercy reigns
Unending love, amazing grace.

The earth shall soon dissolve like snow
The sun forbear to shine.
But God, who called me here below
Will be forever mine,
Will be forever mine.
You are forever mine.

IN·LUMINE·TUO·VIDEBIMUS·LUMEN

Meditation Hymn: Irish Blessings

May love and laughter light your days and warm your heart and home.
May good and faithful friends be yours wherever you may roam.
May peace and plenty bless your world with joy that long endures.
May all life's passing seasons bring the best to you and yours.

For ev'ry storm a rainbow, for every tear a smile.
For ev'ry care a promise and a blessing in each trial.
For ev'ry problem life sends, a faithful friend to share,
For ev'ry sigh, a sweet song and an answer for each prayer.

RECESSIONAL HYMN

A Rightful Place

Let us live our lives so that all might see
That our hearts are restless till they rest
in thee. Let us build your kingdom in truth and grace. So that all might know they have a rightful place.

Beauty ever ancient and new, Breaking through our deafness so we hear you.
Shattering the darkness of night, A new dawn is rising to bring your light. To all the world.

That our hearts are restless till they rest
in thee. Let us build your kingdom in truth
and grace So that all might know they have
a rightful place.

To gather in your presence we came
To be one in spirit, in truth and name;
Strengthened by the body of Christ,
Taking up the call now to share your light
With all the world.

Let us live our lives so that all might see
That our hearts are restless till they rest
in thee. Let us build your kingdom in truth
and grace. So that all might know they have a rightful place.

ACADEMIC DRESS

American academic costume originated in medieval European universities where clerical-like gowns were everyday dress, providing for their wearers not only distinctions, but warmth during long hours of study in poorly heated buildings. On American campuses today, academic attire is seen only at such formal affairs as commencements, convocations, dedications, and other ceremonies.

It is possible to identify which degree the wearer holds, the university that awarded it, and the course of study that it represents. The distinguishing features are three — the cut of the gown, the length and colors of the hood, and the color of the tassel on the cap.

The bachelor's and master's gowns are generally made of plain black cotton without trimming, while the gown for the doctorate is made of rayon or silk and is faced down the front with black or colored velvet and has three bars of the same material across bell-shaped sleeves. Members of the governing body of a college, university, or other academic institution are entitled to wear doctoral gowns, although hoods represent the actual degree held by the wearer. The chief faculty marshal may wear a specially designed costume approved by the institution. Military uniforms and religious habits are also appropriate apparel at academic convocations. Chief officers of many universities wear colored gowns, and several institutions have authorized optional doctoral gowns which embody the institution.

The hood is the most distinctive feature of academic attire in the United States. Originally used as a cowl, as a shoulder cape, and as a container in which to collect alms, it is now worn at the back, suspended from the shoulders. The hoods can be distinguished by length and color. The bachelor's hood measures three feet, the master's three and one-half, and the doctor's four. The color of the velvet edging which is two inches wide for the bachelor's hood, three inches wide for the master's, and five inches wide for the doctor's, indicates the subject area of the degree. The lining of the hood symbolizes the official colors of the institution which awarded the degree and the hood is worn in such a way that a large part of the lining is visible.

The black mortarboard cap with tassel may be worn with each type of gown. Those holding a doctorate wear gold tassels, while holders of bachelor's and master's degrees generally have black tassels. With the exception of the graduates who wear the tassel over the right temple, all others wear the tassel over the left temple. Some institutions have the graduating class move their tassels to the left during the commencement ceremony to officially symbolize the conferring of a degree.

The following colors are associated with each faculty: Arts, Letters, and Humanities — white; Business Administration — drab; Economics — copper; Education — light blue; Engineering — orange; Fine Arts — brown; Journalism — crimson; Law — purple; Library — lemon; Medicine — green; Music — pink; Philosophy — dark blue; Physical Education — sage green; Science — golden yellow; Social Science — cream; and Theology — scarlet.
