The SECOND SEASON

Episode One: Thunder

The episode begins oddly, with the scene in the FUTURE, when everyone is older and John interviews the disciples and takes notes of what they remember about their first meeting with Jesus. This scene shows how the Gospel of John could have been recorded. According to the plot, the disciples had a reunion because they just buried James, who was the first Apostle to die for Christ (martyr). John has realized that soon they all may die and it is important to record their memoirs for the future disciples. John cares for Mother Mary, because Jesus from the Cross asked him to look after her since He was not to be around.
