Twenty-three Years of Cultivating Excellence in Academics, Arts, and Athletics

"In the beginning there was a 73-acre field full of darkness and possibility. School leaders emerged and brought forth their vision. The architect lifted the haze of obscurity. The builders came and sparked the reality. The community created the atmosphere...and then there was light.

As the sun began to rise on August 12, 2002, Northview students and faculty eagerly began to prepare for the inaugural day of our new school. First to arrive was Northview's guiding light, Principal Peter Zervakos. By 8:00 AM, the halls of Northview came alive for the first time as the student body explored its new territory. At 8:15 AM when the JROTC raised the flag for the first time there was an excitement in the air, and everyone felt electrified. Finally, the last bell rang and the first day of school was on record as a huge success. It was time for new friendships, new traditions, and new beginnings."

— An excerpt from Issue 1, Volume 1, 2003, p. 1 & 8, of the Mnemosyne, Northview's Yearbook.

For twenty-three years Northview High School has ranked as one of the top public schools in Georgia and held one of the best national rankings in the state. As we celebrate our 23rd year, we will continue to look back at the traditions that have kept us strong and continue to live by our school slogan:

Ever Upward and Onward!
