By definition, bullying is:

When someone repeatedly and on purpose says or does mean or hurtful things to another person who has a hard time defending him or herself.

The three key components of bullying behavior:

1. Behavior done on purpose
2. An imbalance of power or strength
3. Typically involves a pattern of behavior repeated over time

The Ohio Department of Education defines bullying and/or harassment as: "Any intentional written, verbal, graphic or physical act that a student or group of students exhibited toward another particular student more than once and the behavior both: causes mental or physical harm to the other student; and is sufficiently severe, persistent or pervasive that it creates an intimidating, threatening or abusive educational environment for the other student."
