Media Advisory

Daniel Jenkins Academy Hosting Community Day

Who: Students, families, faculty, staff, community members, and media outlets are welcome and encouraged to attend.

What: Daniel Jenkins Academy (DJA) and the Murray Hill Community Association, along with support from additional civic organizations, are partnering to host their annual Community Day, an event aimed at developing an awareness of the school and building relationships with surrounding neighborhoods.

Join DJA's students, faculty, and staff along with community members for a day of fun, entertainment, and engagement. There will be free food, prize drawings, and helpful resources for families.

School staff members are very excited to be hosting our first blood drive – in conjunction with The Blood Connection – during Community Day.

When: Saturday, May 17, 2025; 11:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m.

Where: Daniel Jenkins Academy, 2670 Bonds Avenue, North Charleston, SC 29405

For more information, contact DJA's Restoration Specialist, Tarikia White, at (843) 747-6609.

About the Charleston County School District

Charleston County School District (CCSD) is a nationally accredited school district committed to providing equitable and quality educational opportunities for all its students. CCSD is the second-largest school system in South Carolina and represents a unique blend of urban, suburban, and rural schools spanning 1,300 square miles along the coast. CCSD serves approximately 50,000 students in 88 schools and specialized programs.

CCSD offers a diverse portfolio of educational options and specialized programs delivered to the students of CCSD through neighborhood, magnet, IB (international baccalaureate), Montessori, and charter schools and programs. Rich educational opportunities for students include programs in science, technology, engineering, and mathematics (STEM); music and other creative and performing arts; career and technical preparation programs; military; dual credit; and many more.
