Total	$7,125

Michelle S. motioned to accept the proposed budget as presented above, Laura P. seconded the motion; the motion was unanimously approved.

Note: Budget will likely be further amended during the year to account for revenues (ex. Dine & Donate, Academy of Driving) and to increase grant and scholarship money, expenses, a needed/available.

- Student Activities Update by Matt Pipitone as Mr. Mattix is coaching
  - Club Drive
  - Blood Drive - will be happening next week
  - Homecoming Week - (PTC's next meeting kicks off Homecoming Week)

Special Guest: Welcome Back Check-in with Principal Serin & Q&A

- Construction Update:
  - Gym demo is complete
  - Next summer the pool and pool building will be demolished
  - Starting new pool and tennis courts in March 2025
  - Currently we have the most parking we have ever had

- The new building will start by Moeller Gym and go almost to the admin building; it will house 14 classrooms, including a room for our FSP program that includes a dedicated restroom to meet their needs.
- Plans are public and will share the link for Dara to post on the PTC website
- Keep in mind: Plans can change!
- Professional Development
  - Thinking Strategy for students
  - Teachers will be more of a facilitator vs. an answer key
  - More critical thinking for the students
  - District-wide initiative
  - We celebrate 25 years of AVID - supporting students that are 1st generation college bound; to be more successful. We are a National Demo Site.
- Six new staff members - Drama, Photography (CTE), Physics teachers, Special Ed and Edgar in the Wellness Center
- We are writing our own story. RHS is not a stand-alone book. Many came before us. Each unique in our own way.

Reminders/ Upcoming Meetings:

- Class of 2028 - Parent Interest form located in the rear
- Thursday, 8/29 - Smashburger Dine & Donate is all day, just mention RHS; location is 1541 Blue Oaks Blvd.
