Scholarship Fund Background

On the evening of January 23, 1997, Kevin M. Eidt, an 18-year-old freshman at Boston College, passed away from cardiac arrest while playing an intramural basketball game on campus. Dreams are important. And this community's dreams of what Kevin would continue to accomplish was not destined to end with a tragic story about a basketball game but rather continue in the hearts and minds of the exceptional young men and women who are recipients of his scholarships. Recipients who carry on Kevin's legacy that you can even at this age make a difference in this world; that no matter what your God given talents if you worked hard you would succeed; and that it was never an option to do something badly when it was within your power to do it well.

Kevin, co-valedictorian of the Norwalk High School class of 1996 was also co-captain of the boy's tennis team, and a member of the renowned marching band and the jazz ensemble. Outside of school Kevin gave to the community as a volunteer for the Norwalk Soup Kitchen, Save the Children, and the American Heart Association. As a junior in high school Kevin created the concept and co-chaired with his brother, the first Hoops for Hearts basketball tournament in Fairfield County to benefit the American Heart Association.

Kevin entered Boston College in the fall of 1996. He was to complete only one semester, passing away during the first week of the spring semester. But in that short time, Kevin left his mark on BC, as he did in Fairfield County. He was a dean's list computer science major in the Carroll School of Management Honors Program and shared his music talent as a member of the Pep Band, Jazz Ensemble, and Liturgy Arts Group. Yet in spite of the fact, he was to spend such a short time at BC, it was obviously filled with accomplishments attested to by his posthumously receiving the annual Nicholas H. Woods Leadership Award. In addition, the men and women's intramural basketball trophies at Boston College have been named after Kevin, and the Liturgy Arts Group dedicated a CD in his memory.

As part of Norwalk's 350th anniversary in October 2001, Kevin was posthumously honored as one of the hundred individuals whose leadership would shape the greater Norwalk area for the next 50 years. This honor was in recognition of what Kevin accomplished in his life and what his memory and legacy continue to make possible through a caring community's support of his Scholarship Fund.

Kevin has been posthumously honored by having the St. Jerome, (Norwalk, CT), Youth Room, and the Norwalk High School National Honor Society Chapter named in his honor.

Boston College Eagle EMS is an all-volunteer student run, quick response emergency medical service organization formed in 1997 by a classmate of Kevin's who wanted to make sure future situations like Kevin's could be met with the skill and resources which could mean the difference between life and death. In 2009 Eagle EMS established the Kevin M. Eidt Excellence Award which is presented annually to the most outstanding member of the organization. Today, the organization formed in Kevin's memory, has 70+ active members and has recently been awarded the Striving for Excellence Award by the National Collegiate EMS foundation, the foundation's most prestigious honor.

It was the life Kevin led, and the void his passing created, that led family and friends to create the Kevin M. Eidt Memorial Scholarship Fund. The level of contributions received in that first year far exceeded expectations and with the help of an annual benefit dinner dance, the idea of a one-time scholarship has evolved into a significant ongoing scholarship program. A program, which has allowed Kevin's spirit to continue in the exceptional young men and women who are recipients of his scholarships.
