Only certain matters may be discussed in executive session. A board may only discuss the following six topics in executive session:

1. the appointment, employment, dismissal, discipline, promotion, demotion or compensation of an employee or official, or the investigation of charges or complaints against an employee, official, licensee or student, unless the employee, official, licensee or student requests a public hearing;
2. the purchase of property for public purposes or the sale of property at competitive bidding;
3. conferences with the board's attorney to discuss matters which are the subject of pending or imminent court action;
4. preparing for, conducting or reviewing negotiations or bargaining sessions with employees;
5. matters required to be kept confidential by federal law or rules or state statutes;
6. specialized details of security arrangements.

Executive sessions are for the purpose of deliberations only. No action may be taken during an executive session. (© Ohio School Boards Association Five Fast Facts May 2013)
