CONTRACT FOR STUDENTS:

As a band student you will be required to follow the rules listed below:

- Come prepared to every band class with your instrument, supplies, and music. Come to band class even if you do not have your instrument that day. If there is a special program going on in your classroom during strings practice, see your strings teacher for permission to miss strings.
- Be quiet and attentive in band class. Always show respect to your teacher, classmates, and instrument.
- Practice your instrument at least 15 minutes daily. If you need to miss a day of practice, make up the time the next day.
- Attendance at performances is expected.
- Keep your instrument in good playing condition. If it needs repair, please take it to your music teacher.

PARENTS: Band is a year-long course.
