

Murrieta Valley Unified School District
High School Course Outline
February 2013

Department: Visual and Performing Arts

Course Title: Technical Theater II

Course Number: 6566

Grade Level: 9 - 12

Length of Course: Year

Prerequisite: Passing Technical Theatre I with “C” or better and/or instructor approval.

Course Description: This course meets one year of district graduation requirements for Visual and Performing Arts.

Goals:

I. Artistic Perception Component:

- A. Students will develop and demonstrate skills of Technical Theatre components using vocabulary and language of the theater.
- B. Students will practice the fundamental components of the Theater: Set, Props, Costume, Lighting and Sound.

II. Creative Expression Component:

- A. Students will demonstrate design techniques. (Ex: Renderings, Floor Plans, Lighting and Sound Plots, and / or Publicity).

III. Historical and Cultural Context Component:

- A. Students will demonstrate Historical Accuracy within Design components.

IV. Aesthetic Valuing Component:

- A. Students will write a critique and evaluate a live theatrical production.
- B. Students will self and peer critique technical elements in formal and / or informal evaluations.

- V. Connections, Relationships and Applications Component:
 - A. Students will gather knowledge of theatrical structure and hierarchy of responsibilities and duties in technical theatre.
 - B. All students are given opportunities to participate in Theatre and / or House Operations.
- VI. Accountability Determinants:
 - A. Teacher observation of day-to-day classroom participation, effort, behavior and achievement.
 - B. Individual test and projects.
 - C. Final assessment.
- VII. Required Text:
 - A. None
- VIII. Supplementary Materials:
 - A. Taylor, Robert D. and Strickland, Robert D. Theatre Art in Action, Lincolnwood, Illinois, National Textbook Company, 1999.
 - B. Caltagirone, Dennis. Theatre Arts: The Dynamics of Acting. Fourth Edition, Lincolnwood, Illinois, National Textbook Company, 1999.
 - C. Basic Drama Projects.
 - D. DVDs