

Entering Second Grade Choice Board

The choice board activities are designed to help students reflect on the books they read.

Students are encouraged to reflect on their reading once per week

My Favorite Part Tell about your favorite part of the book. Include a drawing to show your favorite part. Use details and complete sentences.	Vocabulary: Find a new word in your book - copy the sentence from the book. Ask an adult to help you look up the meaning. Draw a picture of the word.	Main Character: Draw a picture of the main character and write a sentence describing the main character.	Fiction vs. Nonfiction: Does your book tell a story or give information? How do you know? My book tells about ____.
Problem/Solution: Draw a picture and write one sentence describing the problem and solution in a book.	Letter to a friend: Tell your friend about one of the book you read. Write them a note and tell them about the story.	Setting: Draw a picture of the setting of your story. Write a sentence describing the setting.	Beginning, Middle, End: Draw a picture and one sentence to describe all three parts of a book you read.
Information Station: Did you read a nonfiction book? Draw two pictures about what you learned. Write a sentence for each picture.	Cover Art: Draw a new cover for your book. Include the title at the top of your picture.	Wondering: Think about a nonfiction book you read - what questions do you still have about this topic?	Make connections: Think about your main character. How are you like her? How are you different?
