This week is CSEA Appreciation Week, we want to take a moment to recognize and thank our incredible classified staff who work tirelessly to support our students, teachers, and our whole school community. From ensuring our campus runs smoothly to providing essential services that make our school a welcoming and safe place to learn, their dedication does not go unnoticed. Our classified staff plays a vital role in creating an environment where students can thrive, and for that, we are truly grateful. Please join us in expressing our heartfelt appreciation for all that they do. Their hard work, commitment, and care make a difference every single day. JBHS Classified support staff, thank you for being an essential part of our school family!

Graduation is this Friday May 23, 2025 at 5pm. Detailed information will be sent in a separate email.

Schedule Changes - ATTENTION 9-11 GRADERS. This week is your last chance to make changes to your schedule for next school year! The JBHS Drama Department received incredible recognition for their outstanding production of the musical Big Fish, earning several nominations at the prestigious Jerry Herman Awards, including Best Actor - Silas Shulz, Best Actress - Jhanessa Equila, and Best Production. This annual celebration honors excellence in high school musical theatre across Los Angeles and serves as the regional pathway to the National High School Musical Theatre Awards—better known as The Jimmy Awards. A special congratulations goes to Evan Baker, who won Best Supporting Actor for his heartfelt portrayal of "Will" in Big Fish. This is a tremendous achievement and a testament to his talent and dedication. We are incredibly proud of our students, staff, and creative team for their hard work and passion. Congratulations to all involved in Big Fish—your dedication has truly made a splash!

Athletic Clearance - Students and athletes, Home Campus is now open for the school year 2025-2026. Visit HomeCampus.com/login to get the process started. Make sure you are cleared especially if you are trying out or participating in a summer program. If you have recently completed the clearance, you must do so again for the new school year. For more information, see Mrs. Cascolan at the Athletics & Activities counter in the Front Office.

GO BEARS!
