Spring 2025 Final Exam FAQs

- If I am exempt from an exam, do I have to show up for that final exam?
    - Congratulations! You earned the right to skip an exam with a 75 or above semester avg., no suspensions, no ALC placements, no U in conduct, 5 or fewer absences and 3 or fewer tardies.
- What happens if I miss a final exam?
    - You will receive a zero and will need to make arrangements to make arrangements with our DI Fran Williams this summer.
- After I finish an exam, can I leave the classroom?
    - No. You must stay in the class for the entire time.
    - You cannot leave for any reason. (For example, visit another teacher, go to the restroom, get water, get a snack, turn in a book, turn in an assignment to another teacher, etc.)
- Do I have to be present for the periods other than the exams?
    - Attendance will be taken. You will be marked absent if you are not in class.
    - After exams are over for the day, and if you have parent permission, you may leave campus.
- Will lunch be served during finals week?
    - Yes, lunch will be served. See the final exam schedule.
- Are there late buses during finals week?
    - No. The last day for late buses was April 30, 2025.
- What do I do if I exempt an exam and need to ride the bus?
    - You will need to wait in the commons during the entire exam period that you have exempted.
    - Once you're on campus, you need to stay for all of your classes.
    - Once you leave campus, do not come back.
- Have a great end to the semester, and we hope you enjoy your Summer break!
