We hope everyone is ready to settle back into the regular routine after the whirlwind of winter break!

We're also excited to kick off the new year with our first community potluck this Thursday—we hope to see you there! Plus, we're organizing a Book Swap for 2/5, so start gathering the books you're ready to pass on. Let's make this season fun, engaging, and filled with connection!

Thank you!

We want to extend a heartfelt thank you to Alice (the Gingerbread Lady, also known as Alynda Silcox's mother), Alynda, and her family for creating the incredible gingerbread house kits.

A big thank you as well to everyone who joined us for Winterfest—it was an absolute blast! Your participation and enthusiasm made the event so fun.
