Native American Graduates Honored at Ceremony

What: Native American graduation recognition ceremony

When: Wednesday, May 21, 2025
5-7 p.m.

Where: Bullard High School theater
5445 N. Palm Ave. (93704)

Native American graduates will be honored for their academic achievements in a special ceremony designed in a culturally significant manner to create a sense of belonging within the school community. For this second annual recognition ceremony, the number of students has doubled from last year to 14 graduates. Graduates will be welcomed into the theater with an honor song and presented with culturally significant items and a tribal stole that they may wear during the main school ceremonies. The ceremony will close with an honor song for graduates.

“Our Native American recognition ceremony is a wonderful new tradition for Fresno Unified. As we embrace the diversity of our district, this is an opportunity to honor the traditions of our Native American students and their families and to celebrate their accomplishments,” said Superintendent Misty Her.
