Good Morning Deltonians!! A big shout out to Mr. Blacketer, Mr. Keaney and Ms. Scott for taking our students to Seattle for National History Day. We heard you all had a great time!

Lets stand for our Pledge of Allegiance. Please Stand up, face the flag, say the pledge with me.
I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America, and to the Republic for which it stands: one Nation under God, indivisible, with Liberty and Justice for all.

And Now Gabe and Makenna will be sharing your morning announcements.

Yearbook Orders Close May 3! Don't miss your chance—after May 3, the order portal closes for good. No late orders. No exceptions. This is beyond our control—it's how the printer knows how many to print. An updated list of who has ordered will be posted daily outside Mrs. Cameron's room. If your name isn't on it, you haven't ordered. Please don't ask the front office or Mrs. Cameron about your order—the list is the only info available. The QR code to order is posted in Minga and on ParentSquare. Get your order in now—don't wait!

Gabe says, "And Now for our Joke of the Week:! – A little boy asked his grandmother what year she was born. She told him she was born in 1935. Makena says, "Wow!" the boy exclaimed. "If you were a baseball card, you'd be worth lots of money!" HaHaHa
