

The Action Cycle is an important part of a scholar's experience. Scholars are encouraged and expected to reflect on their learning, to think about a choice based on their understandings, and to take action to support their choice. The action taken by scholars in the PYP will vary greatly and is a voluntary demonstration of an internal motivation to make a positive change in the world.