

Alexander County Schools

700 LILEDOWN ROAD

TAYLORSVILLE, NORTH CAROLINA 28681

Parents:

Your child will be receiving an Alexander County sponsored Gmail account for work within their classroom. This Gmail account will be used for teacher/student communication as well as to log into various school or educational sites such as Google Classroom. This account is the property of Alexander County Schools and should not be utilized to access non-school-related sites. As property of Alexander County Schools, the site is subject to monitoring.

Students will be issued a Gmail account and password by Alexander County Schools. Your child's teachers will keep a copy of this password in a secure location and you, as a parent, can request it at any time. Your child should not change their password. Students should not share their password with others

The Alexander County Technology Responsible Use Policy applies to this account as well as any other Internet application. Students should only use their school issued Gmail account to access content approved by Alexander County Schools.

Parents of elementary students must "opt in" by completing the bottom portion of this form and returning it to his/her child's teacher. Students will still be required to complete all assignments in a different format if the parent or guardian does not sign and return.

If you have any questions, please contact your child's teacher.
