Call to order:

Inspiration: Charissa Pritchett

Pledge of Allegiance: All

Approval of Minutes: April 2019 minutes were approved. 1st Charissa Pritchett,

Old Business:

- Seniors are having interviews with Shaw today.
- Still looking at having the community night to inform community on vaping, juuling, and dab pens. It is a widespread problem.

New Business:

- Military signing next week just like the athletes, recognizing them.
- Sgt. Snead has officially started at CHS. His goal is to get into temporary location as of June, and hope to have permanent structure ready by August.
- Mike Candela is coming to CHS. Still looking for a math teacher. Michelle Gambill is also coming to CHS as an instructional coach.
- FAB Wednesday
- Thoughts about having FAB every other week vs. every week. Michelle Gambill will assist with looking at the data and effectiveness. Council feels beneficial in getting caught up in classes, helping to learn how to manage time, appointments etc.
- Do we have students struggling because class is “out of reach” or because instructional and assessment strategies are not adequate?

- Cell phone policy- considering giving a warning for a cell phone vs. detention for first offense. Teachers also need to be consistent.
 - Will go over School Improvement plan next meeting.
 - May 31st is Bartow Business Education collaborative. Local companies will come by tables and see what schools need. CHS is seeking things such as mentors, guest speakers, Character ED/work-force development, etc. (internships, job shadowing)
