

There Is No Achievement Gap With AVID!

AVID (Advancement Via Individual Determination) gives educators nationwide a solution for systematically increasing academic rigor and creating engaging learning environments, accelerating the performance of underrepresented students and delivering results schoolwide.

AVID students graduating from high school experience no achievement gap* versus non-AVID students in all measured categories: Asian, Black or African American, Hispanic or Latino, and White.

2015 AVID Seniors Completing Four-Year College Entrance Requirements

*AVID. (2015). AVID senior data collection: Study of 40,122 AVID seniors [Electronic Database], and Green, J.P., & Forster, G. (2003). Public high school graduation and college readiness rates in the United States (Report No. 3). New York: Manhattan Institute for Policy Research.
*Filipino and Other not classified by Greene and Forster (2003). National data represents the most current comprehensive data available.

“ AVID is a game-changer... it provides the strength for unique groups to persevere in an educational system that has historically marginalized similar students. AVID shines a light on the irresistible determination of students when expectations are raised and a vision for their futures shows no bounds. ”

— Joe Gothard
Superintendent of Schools
Burnsville-Eagan-Savage
Burnsville, MN

Who We Serve

STUDENTS

We serve a student population that is underrepresented in four-year universities—students who are the first in their families to attend college.

FAMILIES

AVID takes college dreams and makes them a reality. Hope, optimism, and the promise of a bright future fill parents and the extended family with pride.

EDUCATORS

Teachers, counselors, administrators, and district personnel work to enhance student engagement leading to increased student achievement.

THE COMMUNITY

Data show that increasing the number of college-educated citizens contributes to economic growth.

Learn how you can close the achievement gap in your district.