

Procedure for Concussions

If a student gets a concussion, the health office will need a doctor's note with confirming diagnosis and any recommendations or restrictions. The nurse/health room staff will then notify the counseling department who will work with administrators, parents and student to put appropriate academic and athletic accommodations in place as the student recovers. A doctor's note will also be needed to clear the student to return to normal activity.