Newsletter Version 18
Date 09/01/2017

- The topic for Coffee with the Principals will be "How to Get the Most out of Parent Teacher Conferences"
- Students this quarter have been focusing on Social Intelligence and Self Control. Teachers will award students demonstrating these strengths at our first quarter assembly when we return from fall break.
- We have 3 robotics teams that are working towards their first competition which will be in October
- Ask your 4th – 8th graders what their strengths, interests and values are! All students in these grade levels recently took a strengths assessment.
- 5th – 8th graders have been using a binder to stay organized! Parents, you can now check their binder for homework assignments.
- Ballet folklorico is back on Mondays from 3 -4 in room 902.
- Jupiter Ed Workshops for middle school parents will be offered throughout the first quarter. It is mandatory to attend at least one workshop.

Character Counts - Quarterly Character Strengths

Emotional Self Control: students are flexible, allow others to speak without interruptions, and remain calm even when provoked.

Social Intelligence: students are able to solve conflicts and show empathy while adapting to social situations
