

Summer Reading

Entering Kindergarten

Summer Activity List for Students Entering Kindergarten

- Enjoy the great variety of children's books and poetry, every day
- Reread favorite stories
- Practice counting and recognizing and writing numbers 1 - 20
- Practice naming and writing ABC's -- upper and lower case
- Practice letter sounds (not vowels)
- Practice writing first and last names .
- Begin learning to tie shoes
- Practice fastening buttons and zippers; putting on coats/jackets and sweaters
- Play board games (don't forget, learning to lose is a valuable life lesson)
- Cut out paper shapes with scissors

Below is a suggested list of picture books that is recommended to read together throughout the summer weeks

Wemberly Worried by Kevin Henkes

Don't Let the Pigeon Drive the Bus by Mo Willems

If You Give A Mouse A Cookie by Laura Numeroff

The Kissing Hand by Audrey Penn

Click Clack Moo: Cows That Type by Doreen Cronin

Red: A Crayon's Story by Micahel Hall

Chicka Chicka Boom Boom by Bill Martin, Jr. and John Archambault

Duck Rabbit by Amy Krouse Rosenthal, illustrated by Tom Litchenheld

The Dot by Peter H. Reynolds

The Little Mouse, the Red Ripe Strawberry, and the Big Hungry Bear by D. and A. Wood

Knuffle Bunny: A Cautionary Tale by Mo Willems

How Rocket Learned to Read by Tad Hills

How Do Dinosaurs Go to School? By Jane Yolen

The Rabbit Listened by Cori Doerrfeld

If I Built a School by Chris Van Dusen

Chickens to the Rescue by John Himmelman

The Magical Yet by by Angela DiTerlizzi; illustrated by Lorena Alvarez,

Rhyming Dust Bunnies by Jan Thomas

One by Kathryn Otoshi

Interrupting Chicken by David Ezra Stein

SuperHero ABC by Bob McLeod

1 2 3 Peas by by Keith Baker

A Squiggly Story by by Andrew Larsen; illustrated by Mike Lowery

The Little Red Fort by by Brenda Maier; illustrated by Sonia Sanchez

Green on Green by by Dianne White, illustrated by Felicta Sala

Boxitects by Kim Smith