Superintendent Performance Objectives

Mr. Don Hague from McPherson & Jacobson was present to help the Board set performance goals for the Superintendent for the 2017-18 year. Three goals were set for the year and ideas for evaluation of these goals were discussed. The Clerk and Superintendent will work on a process that will allow the Board to be able to appropriately evaluate the Superintendent on these goals and objectives. It was generally agreed that the Board will evaluate the Superintendent twice this first year, once in December or January and then again at the end of the school year.
