What information we collect and hold

Personal information is any information we hold that identifies you, including:

- names, addresses, date of birth, telephone numbers, email addresses and other contact details;
- bank details and other financial information;
- images captured by the School's CCTV system that are used for the purposes of safeguarding and promoting the welfare of pupils, staff and visitors and for the protection of property, in accordance with the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO) Code of Practice and the School's policy on taking, storing and using images of children;
- health/medical information for the purpose of membership at Felsted Gym;

Why we collect and use this information

We collect and use information so that we can:

- provide members of the community with access to our school facilities including:
  - membership of Felsted Gym
  - membership of Felsted Swimming Club
  - attendance at Felsted Courses;
- fulfil the purpose of the Felsted Almhouse Charity, including to maintain the properties and the welfare of residents to a high standard;
- deliver a service to those who hire the School facilities;
- for safety and security purposes, including CCTV.

The lawful basis on which we use this information

The use of your information for these purposes is lawful for the following reasons:

- Where it is necessary to use information for our legitimate interests, except when this would be unfair to the individual. Our legitimate interests include providing educational services, safeguarding and promoting pupils welfare, promoting the objects and interest of the School and facilitating its efficient operation.
- The processing is necessary for a contract we have with the you, or because we need to take specific steps before entering into a contract with you;
- The School is under a legal obligation to collect the information or the information is necessary for us to meet legal requirements imposed upon us such as our duty to safeguard pupils.
- It is necessary for us to hold and use information for the purposes of our functions in providing schooling, which is in the public interest.
- Where we do require consent we will contact you, or your child if your child is deemed to be of the age appropriate to provide their own consent.

Collecting information

For the majority of personal information we ask for this directly from individuals. We may also ask for additional information during an individual's time connected with the School, for example in email communication.

Storing data

The School retains personal data securely and in line with how long it is necessary to keep for a legitimate and lawful reason. Our school Record Keeping Policy provides information on the records we store and how long for.

We take appropriate technical and organisational steps to ensure the security of personal data, including the use of technology and devices and access to school systems. We store most of our data on the school site servers or on servers and cloud storage based in the UK or within the European Union (EU). Some organisations which provide services to us may transfer data outside the European Economic Area (EAA) but we will only allow this if your data is adequately protected.

Who we may need to share information with

For the most part, personal information collected by the School will remain within the School, and will be accessed on a 'need to know' basis.

Some of our activity is carried out on our behalf by third parties, such as IT software systems, web developers, cloud storage providers and mailing services. We will always make sure we have in place agreements with any third parties that personal information will be kept securely and only in accordance with our instructions.

We may also need to share information with law enforcement agencies who are discharging their statutory law enforcement functions. As part of our cyber security monitoring we share the Metadata of all traffic deemed to be suspicious with the Police for law enforcement purposes. The Data Controller with whom your data is shared is Essex Police.

We do not normally transfer information to a different country which is outside the European Economic Area, If we are required to we will carry out checks and put security measures in place to make sure that it is safe to transfer the information.

Requesting access to your personal data

Under data protection legislation, individuals have the right to request access to information that we hold about them.

To make a request for your personal information you will need to request this in writing to:
