

On May 24th, volunteers from Greenport's National Honor Society, along with their advisors Mr. Holt and Ms. Labrozzi participated in a beach clean up at 67 Steps Beach. Collecting a truck full of trash while making the beach safe for marine life is just part of the overall community service pillar that NHS members have been upholding all year long. A great time was had by all!

