Key Takeaways

In this meeting, the Central Committee discussed long-term growth, school utilization, and planning for future educational needs, with an emphasis on flexibility and program diversity.

Topics

School Planning and Utilization

- The committee explored how to balance school capacity and flexibility for future growth.
- There was an emphasis on not just maximizing school capacities but optimizing them for better functionality.
- There was discussion about the importance of proximity and accessible school options for students.

Community Involvement and Accessibility

- Encouraging community investment in local schools and ensuring equitable access to educational programs is crucial.
- Addressing the needs of different student populations through diverse program offerings is important to this committee.
- There was a huge emphasis on the point that transportation should not limit access to school programs.

Program and Curriculum Diversity

- This committee thought it was important to ensure schools can accommodate a variety of specialized programs (e.g., career academies, arts, and sciences).
- A focus on creating schools that can support both specialized and general education programs was discussed.
- The need for high school buildings that can support diverse curricula, making programs accessible to students across the district was also discussed.
