School Board Approves New Director of Secondary Education

INDIANAPOLIS – This evening, the School Board of the Metropolitan School District of Lawrence Township approved the appointment of Mr. Brett Crousore to the position Director of Secondary Education. Mr. Crousore will transition to this new role July 1, 2025, from that of Principal at Lawrence North High School, a role he has held since 2011. He has additional previous experience as an Associate Principal, Assistant Principal, Teacher, and Coach at Lawrence North, having spent all but one year of his professional career in the MSD of Lawrence Township.

Mr. Crousore earned his Bachelor of Arts in History with a Minor in Psychology at Wabash College in 1995. He completed his Master’s Degree at Butler University in the Experiential Program for Preparing School Principals (EPPSP) in 2004.

Regarding his new position, Crousore shares, “Serving as the principal at Lawrence North High School has been one of the most rewarding chapters of my career. I am incredibly proud of what we have accomplished together. As I transition into this new role, I am excited to continue supporting our schools, staff, and students on a broader level – ensuring every learner has the opportunity to thrive at the secondary level in the MSD of Lawrence Township.”

According to superintendent, Dr. Shawn A. Smith, “In his new role, Mr. Crousore will bring tremendous insight and experience to our district leadership team as we prepare to implement new graduation requirements and enhance workforce development opportunities for our future graduates. His deep understanding of high school programming and dedication to student-centered leadership will benefit students and families across the district.”
