Chinese National Honor Society

National Chinese Honor Society is a great way to meet other students learning Chinese, get involved in the community, and engage in Chinese cultural events. Chinese National Honors Society was established in November 1993. Its objective is to acknowledge the high academic achievement of students studying Chinese as a second language. Like other honor societies, NCHS recognizes not only high scholastic achievement, but also leadership, character, and community service. In order to maintain your membership of NCHS, you must be enrolled in the Seaholm or Grove High School Chinese program the year you enter, have completed a minimum of two Chinese classes at Seaholm or currently be enrolled in Chinese 2 or higher, maintain an average of a B in Chinese classes, attend meetings and assigned volunteer works, work with the advisor and other members, and plan on continuing learning mandarin into upper levels (ex: honors Chinese four, honors Chinese five, and or AP Chinese). While in NCHS you must complete nine community service hours (three of them must be tutoring another Chinese student at the same or lower level than you). All in all, the purpose of the society is to recognize high achievement of high school students in the Mandarin courses to promote a continuing interest in Chinese culture and language.

DECA

DECA is a global organization that prepares emerging leaders and entrepreneurs for careers in marketing, finance, hospitality, and management. With more than 200,000 high school and college members worldwide, DECA offers students the chance to apply what they learn in the classroom through real-world experiences, competitive events, and leadership development.

Students involved in DECA build professional skills, attend conferences, compete in business-related challenges at the local, state, and international levels, and connect with industry professionals. Membership also opens doors to scholarships, internships, and community service opportunities.

To join DECA, students must be enrolled in a marketing or business course. For more information, visit www.deca.org.

National Honor Society (NHS)

National Honor Society is an honors organization, the foundation of which rests upon the scholarship of its members. In order to be eligible for membership in the National Honor Society, current students must be entering the 11th grade and have a least a 3.5000 cumulative un-weighted grade point average. Students must also have a clean academic record and no incidences that show a lack of character for at least the previous twelve months. In addition, applicants must demonstrate characteristics of leadership, service, and character, the cornerstones of NHS. Each year Seaholm's NHS chapter participates in various service projects within the school and community. There are two mandatory events which all members must attend as well as a yearly requirement of 25-30 community service hours depending on what grade you are in.

Katie Goetz kgoetz@birmingham.k12.mi.us

Science National Honor Society

The Seaholm Chapter of SNHS invites juniors and seniors to join a community of learners interested in initiatives in scientific advancement, research and scientific exploration. Meetings occur throughout the school year with the majority taking place after school in addition to select community outreach projects. To apply and to be accepted, students must have an unweighted cumulative GPA of 3.5, demonstrate an interest in science, exude excellent character. Officers will be elected to serve in leadership roles and all students will be expected to fully participate in all activities.

Stephen Claerr sclaerr@birmingham.k12.mi.us

Seaholm Debate team

Competitive speech prepares students to excel in communicating in all types of forums and is an invaluable life skill. Debate team members will improve their argumentation skills and will compete in Public Forum debate at a variety of tournaments. Students interested in debate should consider taking the debate and/ or honors debate class. The team competes from September through December each year in the local MIFA circuit. Students have the opportunity to extend their competitive season with virtual National Speech and Debate tournaments if they are interested. If you're interested in joining the team contact Mrs. McKinney at hmckinney@birmingham.k12.mi.us

Hayley McKinney hmckinney@birmingham.k12.mi.us

Seaholm Forensic team

Competitive speech prepares students to excel in communicating in all types of forums and is an invaluable life skill. On the Forensic team, students compete in various dramatic performance events, involving literature from poetry, prose, children's stories, and plays. Students also may choose to write original informative, persuasive, or sales speeches about an issue or topic that is important to them. Other categories include limited preparation events such as impromptu and broadcasting. Events may involve individuals or groups of students. Students interested in the forensic team should consider taking the forensic and/ or honors forensic class. We begin preparing our pieces in January and the local competitive season runs through March. There is an opportunity for continued competition based on students' interest through April and May at the Regional and State level.

Hayley McKinney hmckinney@birmingham.k12.mi.us

Sociedad honoraria hispánica de Seaholm (Spanish National Honor Society)

La Sociedad Honoraria Hispánica de Seaholm (Spanish National Honor Society) is an academic honors society sponsored by the American Association of Teachers of Spanish and Portuguese. The purpose of this society is to cultivate experiential opportunities and a life-long interest in the 5 C's of World Language Readiness: culture, comparisons, communities, communication, and connections. Digital applications are accepted in the spring of each school year. Applicants must be sophomores or older, actively enrolled in a Spanish 4 or higher Spanish class, have an GPA of 3.5 or higher in their previous Spanish courses, and be of good character to be considered. Once admitted and inducted (Oct 2025), there are community service and tutoring requirements. Members have opportunities for executive director positions as well as other leadership positions if desired. Fundraising, charity, and outreach for various schools and community organizations is our primary focus. These players must have a strong interest in learning and performing contemporary pop, rock, and alternative music on electric string instruments. The ensemble has a limited capacity. Students will be provided with electric string instruments to rehearse and perform on (instruments MUST be kept at school). Rehearsals are scheduled on Mondays after-school.

Samer Jeroudi sjeroudi@birmingham.k12.mi.us

National Arts Honor Society

The Seaholm chapter of the National Art Honor Society offers students opportunities for national recognition, scholarships, peer recognition, leadership growth opportunities, college and career preparation, as well as the distinguished honor of being a member in a group with 46,000 other talented art students. In this group the focus is on service and growth, while maintaining an emphasis on art in our lives and in the community. Members will host art activities, organize fund raisers, and complete art based service hours throughout the year.

Elizabeth Moyer emoyer@birmingham.k12.mi.us

Orchestra - Concert

This is the primary ensemble that feeds into the Seaholm Symphony Orchestra. This ensemble is for students to develop the necessary string performance skills needed to succeed in Symphony Orchestra. This class will focus on the individual development and performance of vibrato, shifting, sight-reading skills, ear training, and music theory.. This ensemble consists of freshman and/or 10-12 grade students who are interested in developing their leadership skills.

Samer Jeroudi sjeroudi@birmingham.k12.mi.us

Orchestra - Symphony (Audition ONLY)

Consists primarily of sophomores, juniors, and seniors who demonstrate mastery of a string instrument (violin, viola, cello, double bass, piano, or guitar), thrive on challenge, have a strong sense of musicianship, and wish to perform more challenging repertoire for string and full orchestra. Auditions for Symphony Orchestra occur in January of each school year. Please see the orchestra director for more information about auditions.

Reflections

This is an annual nation-wide student competition sponsored by the National PTA, the Michigan PTA, and local PTA organizations. The competition encourages students to explore ideas by creating works of art based on a theme. It celebrates the many skills of our students and encourages them to pursue artistic expression in a number of different ways including Film/Video Production, Dance Choreography, Musical Composition, Photography, Visual Arts and Literature. This year's theme is, "I Belong!" Rules and Entry forms are available at: www.birmingham.k12.mi.us/PTA_Reflections. Questions can be emailed to Katy Dobrowitsky at kdobrowitsky@gmail.com

Katy Dobrowitsky kdobrowitsky@gmail.com

Theater - Fall Play

The fall play is one of our school's special opportunities to participate in a dramatic product and it's a blast! Those participating on stage will study and apply many acting techniques and dramatic interpretations. Students are also needed for various crew roles such as set building, lighting and sound. A few select students will also be chosen by application and interview process to fill the highly interactive assistant director and stage manager positions. Auditions will be held in September and the play goes up in November. Exact dates TBD

TBD

Theater - Musical

The Musical involves over 120 students in the cast, stage, light and sound crews. There is also a pit orchestra. Students have the opportunity to be involved in all aspects of theater. All students are welcome to audition. Students are highly encouraged to be a member of the Seaholm choir in order to improve upon their voices and music skills. While working on the musical, students are taught discipline, commitment, and teamwork.

Auditions for the 2023 musical, Mean Girls, will be held in early November. Watch the music board outside of G004 for current information. Rehearsals will begin immediately after selecting the cast, with crew meeting shortly afterwards. The musical performances are the first two weekends of February. It is a large commitment. However, the rewards are amazing. If you join the Seaholm musical, you will form close and long-lasting friendships. For our students, the musical can be one of their most memorable experiences in high school. Please join us for a unique, fun, and exciting experience.

John Hummel jhummel@birmingham.k12.mi.us

Theater - Stage & Tech Crews

Stage crew students learn how to work with others in designing and building sets for the different shows that are performed at Seaholm. They include the Fall Play and Spring Musical. All grade levels are welcome to join in and be a part of stage crew. No prior experience is required. Some members also help with the lighting and sound during the performances.

John Hummel jhummel@birmingham.k12.mi.us

Physics Club and STEM Leadership Academy

The Physics Club offers interactive hands-on engineering/science lessons, activities, project building, and opportunities to hear from guest speakers in STEM and medical related fields. We call these opportunities: The STEAM Cafe. In addition to STEM related themes, there will be a focus on team building, problem solving, questioning, character building, and communication.

The STEM Leadership Academy helps students develop leadership skills, hands-on STEM activities, and lesson planning for numerous enrichment opportunities. Many of the Seaholm STEAM clubs come together and participate in some of the district events. These student leaders, not only provide hands on STEM experiences for K-5 students and families within our district, but we also expand the collective impact by adopting schools outside our district with limited resources and underrepresented populations.

SAT Club

Each year, colleges become more and more selective. With the increasing competition, colleges look at standardized results to compare students, the most common of which being the SAT. Although a strong SAT score cannot guarantee admission, as the college application process is holistic, a weak score will bring an application down. Here at the SAT Club, we aim to educate students on the intricacies of the SAT so that they may get closer to their target score. Student Leader: Vittorio Bevione: vb1@bps-schools.com

School Activities

Forest Fire

The Forest Fire is a literary club made by and for students. Our mission is to provide a platform for Seaholm students to showcase their creative talents, thus developing an environment in which the artistic passions of Seaholm students are valued and appreciated. The Forest Fire meets weekly to build a creative writing and art community at Seaholm. We write and share weekly and work on creating one "published" piece of writing each trimester (literary magazine, one-act plays, short story collections, etc.). At the current time period, all published work is completed digitally and does not incur a fee for students. If you have questions or interest, email Mrs. McKinney at HMcKinney@birmingham.k12.mi.us.

Hayley McKinney hmckinney@birmingham.k12.mi.us

Links/Peer Mentoring

Students enrolled in the LINKS program work collaboratively with students with special needs. LINKS students act as peer advocates and mentors. They work on communication and problem-solving skills that will be required in post-school experiences. The goal of this partnership is to support friendships, shared responsibility, healthy problem-solving skills, and participation in high school activities. Students sign up when they are available during the day, or before and after school.

Student Congress

Student Congress at Seaholm is a very active group. Each class at Seaholm plans at least three events per year, a fundraiser, a dance, and a service activity. In addition to assisting with these class events, Congress, as a whole, sponsors Homecoming, Powder Puff Football, Charity Drive Month, the annual Career Day for Juniors, as well as many other events throughout the year. Student Congress also considers requests for financial assistance when requested by teachers, and contributes to memorials for teachers and students. Funding is given to worthy projects that require additional financing to be successful. Student Congress acts as the voice of the student body, including: PTSA meetings, Education Council meetings, OAA meetings, and also takes part in the selection of new administrators.
