

Wednesday, May 7, 2025

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Lafayette School Corp. announces its Distinguished Educators for 2025

Lafayette School Corp. was pleased to honor its Distinguished Educators on Tuesday, May 6, with a reception at the Greater Lafayette Career Academy.

Dawn Sargent, a third-grade teacher at Glen Acres Elementary School, was named the District's Distinguished Educator. She has taught at Glen Acres and at Sunnyside Intermediate School, and is currently part of the SCALE K-12 curriculum, which teaches students about microelectronics. Sargent is dedicated to her students, always offering them support, says Glen Acres assistant principal Stefani Goetz. She consistently inspires and empowers her students, challenging them, yet treating them with compassion.

Other school Distinguished Educators for LSC include:

Angel Elliott, nurse, Linnwood Preschool
Jessica Dalton, Kindergarten, Earhart Elementary
Cordell Ford, third grade, Edgelea Elementary
Ashley Baldwin, third grade, Miami Elementary
Adam Cross, special education, Miller Elementary
Megan Shumaker, third grade, Murdock Elementary
Anna Colosi, special education, Oakland Elementary
Rita Bostic, paraprofessional/RBT, Vinton Elementary
Molly Pratt, physical education, Sunnyside Intermediate School
Jill Heim, math, Tecumseh Jr. High School
Addie Pokrificak, social studies, Jefferson High School
Shawna Pearl, student success coordinator, Oakland Academy

##

For more information, contact Cindy Gerlach, LSC Director of Communications, at cgerlach@lsc.k12.in.us, 765-771-6043.