

Welcome to Advanced Placement United States History (APUSH) Summer Assignments 2025

Thank you for your interest in taking the AP United States History (APUSH) course this year! It will take a considerable amount of time and effort on your part, but remember, this is for college credit, and the bar is a lot higher than you are used to. But first, a little history on the description and designation of an AP course...

The College Board describes Advanced Placement United States History as follows: “The Advanced Placement Program (AP) offers a course and exam in AP United States History to qualified students who wish to complete studies in secondary school equivalent to an introductory college course in U.S. history. . . . The AP U.S. History course is designed to provide students with the analytic skills and factual knowledge necessary to deal critically with the problems and materials in U.S. history. The program prepares students for intermediate and advanced college courses by making demands upon them equivalent to those made by full-year introductory college courses. Students should learn to assess historical materials—their relevance to a given interpretive problem, reliability, and importance—and to weigh the evidence and interpretations presented in historical scholarship. An AP U.S. History course should thus develop the skills necessary to arrive at conclusions on the basis of an informed judgment and to present reasons and evidence clearly and persuasively in essay format.”

In order for a course at Briarcrest Christian High School, or any school, to be designated AP[®], the syllabus for that course must be submitted to and approved by the College Board. The AP[®] United States History Course for Briarcrest has been submitted and approved, and thus has been designated and “AP[®] course.

Therefore, due to the breadth of the material and the short amount of classroom time we will have, you will need to read about the American Colonial Period (1492-1763) in your summer assignments.

- The Colonial Period will be covered through Alan Taylor’s American Colonies book. You are to read the book and complete the attached assignments (outlined later in this document).

In addition, review United States history up to 1787. At the end of the second week of class you will take a test on this period, which is covered in the first six chapters of your text, America’s History, 9th AP Edition, by Henretta, Edwards, Hinderaker, and Self. Please be familiar with this material before classes begin in August. We will then begin class with the Revolutionary period.

You will also need the following document books/Textbooks that we will use throughout the year:

- Voices of Freedom: A Documentary History Volume 1 (7th edition)
ISBN: 9781324042174
- Voices of Freedom: A Documentary History Volume 2 (7th edition)
ISBN: 9781324042242
- United States History: Preparing for the Advanced Placement Examination, 4th Edition
ISBN: 1690305509
- America’s History, 9th AP Edition*, by Henretta, Edwards, Hinderaker, and Self.
ISBN: 1319065074

Also, students will need: A binder/notebook for this class, a box of tissues for the general use of the class, and pens/pencils.

To get started early, and prevent a slow start to the school year, you will be required to do several assignments over the summer to help prepare for the class. First will be the questions that go along with the reading of The American Colonies, as described above. While American Colonies is not written through a Biblical Worldview, we will be discussing in class how to analyze documents using the HIPP method (Historical context, Intended Audience, Purpose, and Point of View) to sift through documents and point out bias, propaganda, persuasion, and other subjective ideas that tend to impact historical thought. We will use this methodology for American Colonies and all other in and out of class readings.

(The other assignments will be due throughout the 1st Semester, but you can get started on them over the summer).

REQUIRED READING:

Assignment 1, Book Analysis for THE AMERICAN COLONIES, by Alan Taylor

Directions: Students are to read carefully the book by Alan Taylor. Each chapter will have a set of questions/list of topics for which short answer responses will be asked to probe for understanding. Since this assignment is done on MICROSOFT WORD, upload the document to OnCampus upon its completion.

Short analytical quotes are permissible; however, I do not want the student to copy the material directly from Taylor's book. It should be written in the student's own voice as a summary of understanding. A reader could expect two to five points/sentences made on each topic listed here below.

This assignment is due BEFORE Midnight August 15th, 2025.
