

TEACHING & LEARNING

Christopher Hardy, Executive Director

Dr. Samantha McMasters, Director of Secondary Education

Dr. Rochelle Rankin, Director of Alternative Education

Stephanie White, Literacy Specialist

2024-25 News

- Instructional and Technology Coaches supported teachers with effective strategies and tools from preschool through 12th grade.
- WYHS expanded College and Career Readiness with internships, electrical pre-apprenticeships, and RISE-UP credentialing.
- RMS received the OSBA Outstanding Program Award for its Ecology and Sustainability Program.

What's New for Next Year?

Amplify CKLA

New ELA curriculum for K-5

Project Ready!

New ELA curriculum for Pre-K

Biomedical Engineering

A new WYHS pathway to be rolled out over the next 4 years.

About Us

We lead districtwide efforts to strengthen instruction, align curriculum, and support PreK-12 achievement. In partnership with staff, families, and the community, we help every student become relationship-driven, resourceful, resilient, and ready.

Questions?

Scan here to submit a question to the department.

Frequently Asked Questions

- What does Teaching and Learning do?
 - We ensure all students have access to high-quality, standards-aligned instruction through strong materials, pacing guides, and assessments.
- How does this support teachers?
 - We provide professional development, coaching, and planning resources to support engaging, rigorous instruction.
- How do families stay informed?
 - Curriculum updates and parent guides are shared at school events, by email, and on our website.