MISSION STATEMENT:

The mission of the Lancaster City School Preschool is to provide a caring and joyful environment for all children with an emphasis on Social, Academic, and Physical Growth.

LANCASTER CITY SCHOOLS PRESCHOOL

offers early childhood education for young children

THESE PROGRAMS INCLUDE:

EARLY CHILDHOOD EDUCATION:

Children develop many skills as they play and learn together in a safe and caring environment.

SPECIAL EDUCATION SERVICES:

Children with Identified Special Needs learn together with their typically developing peers.

HEALTH SERVICES:

The child's health is a very important part of development and vision and hearing screenings are done during the year. Parents are notified of concerns.

PARENT INVOLVEMENT:

Parents are the child's first and best teachers. We offer many ways for parents to be involved.

FAMILY SUPPORT SERVICES:

Our Family and Student Support Coordinator links families to agencies/organizations that help meet families' needs (housing, employment, health, education, skill improvement, etc.) and provides intervention support for students.

LANCASTER CITY SCHOOLS PRESCHOOL

serves 3, 4 AND 5 year olds both with and without
Special Needs

The Lancaster City Preschool program includes:

- ✎ Half-day and all day sessions
- ✎ Research based curriculum to best meet the multiple needs of children ages 3-5 both with and without special needs
- ✎ 1 Licensed Teacher and at least 1 Educational Assistant
- ✎ Breakfast, Lunch, and Snack are provided (depending on session and length)
- ✎ Itinerant Services
- ✎ Certified Early Childhood Specialists that provide services for children with identified special needs.

TUITION for typically developing students is based on total household income or ECE Grant Eligibility.
